WILLIAM K. STUCKEY, The Ross Agency, Inc., 525 Gravier Street, residence address 2317 State Street, furnished the following information:

He called at the OSWALD apartment alone, 4905 Magazine Street, at about 8:00 a.m. on August 17, 1963, to invite him to appear on his radio program. OSWALD agreed and STUCKEY told OSWALD to meet him at WDSU Radio Studios, 520 Royal Street, between 4:30 and 5:00 p.m. He stated that his conversation with OSWALD took place on the front porch of OSWALD's apartment and that during the conversation, OSWALD showed him his membership card in the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, which was signed by A. J. HIDELL. He did not know anyone named PETE MOLLAR. Mr. STUCKEY advised that he had never met A. J. HIDELL and from his conversation with OSWALD, came to the conclusion that HIDELL is a fictitious name or an alias used by OSWALD.

STUCKEY stated that an unpublished and unreleased interview with OSWALD was then recorded on tape. The interview lasted for about 37 minutes. He said that officials of the radio station thought that the interview was too long for an interesting program and that he used excerpts from this taped interview on a program known as Latin Listening Post that night. He stated that he then arranged a question and answer program with OSWALD for the evening of August 21, 1963 over Radio Station WDSU. On this program, he invited EDWARD SCANNELL BUTLER, Staff Director for the Information Council of the Americas, CARLOS BRINGUIER, Director of the Student Cuba Directorate for the New Orleans area. This program was broadcasted at 6:05 p.m. on August 21, 1963, in a program entitled , "Conversation Carte Blanche". It was during the latter program that OSWALD stated that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee was not communist controlled and that he, OSWALD, was a Marxist.
